Carnival Notes

Many of the Midway tents are up. The poultry show is going to be the finest thing of its kind ever produced in this county. The association has a fine lot of new pens, the best in the market, and every chicken entered can be assured of opportunity to show off its feathers to the best advantage. The cups offered for fine poultry make a handsome display. They are now in Rowley Drug Company's window.

The big captive balloon that was torn when blown against a building by the guest of wind Friday, has been repaired and filled with gas.

The different communities of the county are gathering their products for the big tent.

HARRY B. WELTY, former president of the Home Security Bank, charged with accepting deposits when he knew the institution was insolvent, was found guilty by a Superior Court jury, which had deliberated since 9 o'clock Saturday night.

VINCENNES, Ind., Oct. 3.—C. Edward Gibson, millionaire oil operator, was shot and killed by Menlo Moore, a wealthy theatrical man.

The killing occurred at the union depot, Moore standing behind Gibson as the latter was purchasing a ticket, and shooting as Gibson turned to take the train. Moore boarded the train for Washington, and was arrested en route.

It is reported the shooting resulted from Gibson's attentions to Mrs. Moore.

Christian Endeavorers Met at Huntington Beach for Yearly Assembly

SOCIAL GREETING WAS THE INITIAL FEATURE

Meetings Addressed by State Officers—Year's Growth of Society Was Large

The Orange County Christian Endeavor convention which began Friday evening at Huntington Beach and closed Saturday night was well attended, fifty or seventy-five attending from Santa Ana and vicinity besides scores of delegates from the beach town and other sections of the county.

On the arrival of the delegates Friday evening a basket lunch in the pavilion was the first order of business, coffee and fish being furnished by the Huntington Beach societies. A special table was provided for the state and county officers, who were the guests of the beach societies.

The toasts to have been given at the supper were postponed and became a feature of the evening program. Purple and gold pennants used in the state 1911 campaign, were used with palms and daisies for decorations of the tables and the pavilion.

The convention opened with a praise service conducted by Miss Mabel M. Culter of El Modena, State Junior Superintendent, and Leon V. Shaw of Los Angeles led the devotionals. J. P. Welles of Los Angeles, state president, gave an address on "The Effective Society" and an address on "The Worker Preparing" was given by Rev. E. F. Hallenbeck, San Diego, ex-state president of New York. The benediction was uttered by Rev. W. J. Battenfield, pastor of the Christian church of Huntington Beach.

A duet was sung by Misses Lucas and Havens of Santa Ana Intermediates.

The Saturday session opened at 6:45 a. m. with a quiet hour service on the beach, led by Leon V. Shaw of Oakland, and participated in by a large proportion of the delegates who gathered there. It was a fitting manner in which to bring before the convention the theme of the morning, "The Worker Preparing," and to lead to the afternoon theme of "The Worker in Actual Service."

The Bible Study at 9, led by Thos. Hannay, Jr., of Mojave, assisted by Rev. E. F. Hallenbeck of San Diego, proved most profitable. The remainder of the morning was then divided into four conferences: "Tenth Legion," led by H. G. Dean of Santa Ana; "Society Prayer Meetings," by Miss Edith M. Graves of Los Angeles; "Individual Prayer" by Leon V. Shaw, and "Consecration," by Rev. Hallenbeck. Fifteen minutes was allowed each speaker with an additional fifteen minutes in which to conduct a general discussion of his topic.

The afternoon session was taken up by the Junior Session in charge of Miss Hallie Walker of Huntington Beach; the Intermediate session in charge of Miss Edith M. Culter of El Modena, assisted by Intermediates; "A Plea for More Interest in Intermediate Work," by Miss Graves of Los Angeles and an address on the coming state convention to be held in Santa Ana, by W. H. Thomas. Preced-

AVIATOR WALSH WILL FLY
MARTIN'S BIPLANE HERE
THURSDAY OF THIS WEEK

A big new feature of the Carnival of Products was added today. There will be aeroplane flights made on the grounds near the city, probably within walking distance.

The man who will do the flying is Charles F. Walsh of Los Angeles, who has been flying at the Motordome. He will go into the air in Glenn Martin's biplane.

The meet will go into the records of the California Aero Club, of which Walsh and Martin are both members.

This is the week of the grand encampment of the Odd Fellows of California and the week of the 1910 Orange County Carnival of Products. Combined in this one week, the time will be one of festivities and entertainment.

The program of the Odd Fellows carries the grand encampment through the week. On Friday comes the Odd Fellows' parade, and Friday evening the grand ball in honor of the grand encampment and cantonment. The Carnival of Products will begin with the coronation of the queen, Miss Emmeline Petersen, at the Grand Opera House on Wednesday evening.

Thursday morning at 10 o'clock comes Japanese daylight fireworks, and at 11 o'clock the Parade of Products will be held. For this parade the carnival committees have arranged the finest lot of floats ever seen in Santa Ana. These floats are new in design and aptly tell the story of Orange county's wonderful fields and orchards.

The exhibition grounds open at noon on Thursday. A visit to the grounds shows the work to be well in hand, and the display of products will be something to make Orange county people proud.

The center-piece is erected in honor of the Odd Fellows. The letters and emblem appear in grains. The tower is trimmed with wheat, corn, barley, and other cereals.

A force of Japanese is at work at the west end of the big exhibition tent preparing a unique Japanese tea garden. This end of the tent will be one of the most attractive features of the exhibition grounds. Thatch work, a pond and typical Japanese decorations are to be used.

URGENT CALL IS ISSUED FOR ENTRIES IN FLOWER PARADE

Make your entries for the flower parade, to be held on Saturday morning. Competitors should make known their entries to the secretary, Parke S. Roper, at 210 West Fourth street.

The committee is particularly anxious to get more entries for the two-horse vehicles, the one-horse vehicles and the automobile divisions. F. P. Nickey, chairman of the committee, stated this morning that the citizens should be notified that the classes should be well filled. Citizens should enter the divisions out of loyalty to the city, that there may be a showing in keeping with the carnival.

As last year banners will be awarded for first, second, third and fourth prizes, and in nearly every class cash prizes will be offered. In the high school and business college contest, the grammar schools contest, the fraternal organizations and clubs contests, the Sunday schools, Y.M.C.A. and church organizations contest, and the automobile contest the prizes are: For first, $40 and orange banner; second, $25 and purple banner; for third, $15 and red banner; for fourth, $10 and blue banner.

The examination will be given at all classified offices in the twelfth district. The examination will be on bookkeeping and stenography.

Each applicant will be required to take both parts of the examination.

Men only will be admitted to this examination.

Applicants must have reached their eighteenth birthday, but not their fortieth birthday, on the date of the examination.

Applicants for this examination may be examined at any place at which the examination is to be held, regardless of their residence.

The forest clerk examination will be held as frequently as the needs of the service require. Attention is invited to the fact that application blanks may be secured from the district secretary and filed with him at any time. When the examination is announced all persons having applications on file will be notified when and where to appear for examination.

In filling vacancies in this position preference will be given to persons examined in the locality in which the vacancy exists. In case the register of any locality becomes exhausted resort will be had to the register of another locality if it contains the names of eligibles available for the position vacant.

This examination is open to all citizens of the United States who comply with the requirements.

This announcement and Form 1424 contain all information which is communicated to applicants regarding the scope of the examination, the vacancies or vacancies to be filled, and the qualifications required.

A Woman's Back
Bas many aches and pains caused by weaknesses and falling, or other dislocation of the pelvic organs. Other symptoms of female weakness are frequent headache, dizziness, imaginary specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, gnawing sensation in stomach dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness.

If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that will give quicker relief or a more permanent cure than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cure. It is the most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening medicine known to medical science. It is made of the glycerine extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and contains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed the bottle-wrapper and at tested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy or known composition, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any self interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

PRISON PROBLEMS WERE CONSIDERED

American Prison Association Plan Prevention as Well as Use of Convicts

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 3.—In his presidential address before the American Prison Association President Amos W. Butler, secretary of the State Board of Charities of Indiana, spoke on "Convicts and Conservation." Mr. Butler emphasized the enormous waste of "convict resources" now occurring in many parts of the United States through keeping prisoners in idleness or but partially employing them.

Mr. Butler stated that no present system of prison labor is in all important respects successful. He advocated the extension of the system of state farms now profitably conducted in the South. "Whenever a new prison is to be constructed the authorities should buy ample land upon which to erect it—not less than an acre for every prisoner, counting the maximum population.

"Do we even in a faint way estimate the possibilities of the employment of persons in many lines of conservation of the water, the land and the forests? We have indications not only from Michigan City and from Bridgewater, Mass., of what can be done in the reclamation of land, but European experience also is suggestive, agricultural prisons having been established in England, New South Wales, Prussia, Austria, Hungary, Switzerland, France, Russia and Belgium. European labor colonies have much to teach us.

"Why, since prisoners make again habitable the abandoned farms of Massachusetts and remove the boulders from the rich soil of Rhode Island, can they not reclaim the tide flats of New Jersey and the everglades of Florida? If prisoners build dykes in Europe and levees in Louisiana, why not elsewhere? In Europe the courses of streams have been changed, mountains tunneled and canals built by prisoners. In the great mountain districts of the United States, in the lands of disappearing timber and along our sandy shores there are possibilities already without limit.

"Not all prisoners can be worked without the walls. In most prisons a majority connot. But with selected prisoners under the right kind of supervision, what could not be done?

These suggestions provide for the very least competition with free labor, for doing something good at the state's expense."

Prevention and Probation

George L. Sehon of Louisville, Ky., read the report of the committee on Prevention and Probation. Mr. Sehon's report contained a strong plea for the sterilization of the unfit and for a radical extension of the probation system.

"With such an alarming showing as from 50 per cent. to 60 per cent. of the children of our feeble minded institutions coming of defective heredity, it is not reasonable to suggest and advocate sterilization," said Mr. Sehon, "as one of the most important and effective of preventive measures? Such a practice has already been recognized by at least three of our states—Indiana, Connecticut and California—as an absolute check on criminality. This committee also finds that an astonishing percentage of the inmates of almshouses, insane asylums and penal institutions of our eastern states are foreign born or children of foreigners.

"The general probation period should be of longer duration. Paid probation officers are recommended. Society's first duty is the conservation of its own best element, and the state should have absolute power of review over every institution dealing with dependent or delinquent children."

The reservations in the Founder's Chapter made for this Chapter have been extended till Oct. 1, 1910. If interested, drop a card to MRS. W. T. CHAPMAN, City. Home Phone 430.

Two horsetrainers working for Charles Durfee started a row with five or six motorcyclists at the Santa Ana race track yesterday, and received a pommeling that they will not soon forget.

The motorcyclists paid $1 apiece for the use of the track yesterday, training for the motorcycle race that is to be a part of the Carnival races. The two horsemen are said to have been drinking. One of them drew a revolver on McTaggart a motorcyclist. Later one of the horsemen kicked a motorcycle. The two horsemen then started in to wipe up the earth with the motorcyclists, who were not slow in protecting themselves. When it was over one of the horsemen needed a physician to attend to a broken nose. One of the motorcyclists lost a tooth in the shuffle. Deputy Sheriff Lacy and Constable Jackson were called out, but no one was found to swear to a complaint.

Nassau Officials Will Hold Special Meeting—Oldfield Araigns Management

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The board of supervisors of Nassau county, Long Island, will hold a special meeting today to consider the advisability of canceling the permits for the grand prize automobile race, scheduled to be held over the Vanderbilt cup course, October 15.

Notwithstanding Saturday's list of four dead and more than 20 injured, incident to the Vanderbilt race, A. R. Partington, general manager of the Long Island motor parkway, is authority for the statement that nothing but official interference shall stop the grand prize.

Several drivers booked to participate in the event have demanded more adequate policing of the course, and tonight William Pickens, manager for Barney Oldfield, gave out the following message, which he says Oldfield sent from Chicago:

"Withdraw my entry from grand prize race unless course will be guarded completely by troops. I am unwilling to risk my neck and car. Oldfield follows with a severe arraignment of the management of the Vanderbilt, whom he says, 'spent nothing to safeguard drivers and spectators.'

The foregoing from Oldfield is somewhat cryptic, however, in that it was said in New York last night that he had not been entered for the grand prize. It was at first understood he would drive a Benz car, but the Benz management is said to have decided on Hemery, Hein and Hearne as their drivers.

C. C. Painter, a member of the Nassau board of supervisors, will offer a motion to cancel the permit at a board meeting tomorrow. Any move to cancel the race will be bitterly fought.

No more deaths of those injured had occurred up to last night, but the condition of four persons is critical.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-earned Reputation

For Months Santa Ana readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

William Thursby, 417 East Walnut street, Santa Ana, Cal., says: "Off and on for years I was bothered by my back and kidneys. To stoop or walk a little distance made the dull, heavy ache in my back more severe and at night my rest was badly broken. Further evidence of fault with my kidneys was shown by a heavy sediment in the secretions from these organs. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box, and soon after I commenced their use, I noticed an improvement. My back gradually grew strong and free from pain and the difficulty with the kidney secretions was corrected. Doan's Kidney Pills are worthy of endorsement." (Statement given March 8, 1907.)

Work That Tells

On August 16, 1909, Mr. Thursby was interviewed and he said: "I have not changed my opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills since I recommended them over two years ago. The cure they affected has been permanent and I have had no further occasion to use a kidney medicine."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

CONNECTING UP FOR LONG DISTANCE CALLS

Results secured recently by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company in the way of attaching to its system various independent telephone companies make it evident that that company is doing its utmost to solve the question of universal telephone service. Its efforts toward such an end will certainly be appreciated by any community which has the misfortune to be saddled with a dual telephone system.

During the past few months, over 3500 subscribers have been added to the Pacific Company's system by special connecting arrangements, and now the addition of the Sierra Madre Home Telephone Company is reported. This latter company has over 300 subscribers, and these may now be reached direct by any Pacific Telephone subscriber in this or any other section.

The connecting arrangement was completed October 1st, and is similar to recent ones, put into effect with the Home Telephone Companies located at Whittier, Redlands, Downey, El Monte, Corona, Huntington Beach and Monrovia.

PREPARE FOR THIS WINTER

Engineer to Look After Weak Spots in Santa Ana River Channel

Since the Newbert Protection District will be unable to do any of its permanent work this year, the board of directors of the district on Saturday authorized the engineer, H. Clay Kellogg, to take steps for repairing the weak places in the channel banks in order to give protection from overflow the coming winter.

The motion carried with it that the work should not be allowed to cost over fifteen cents per cubic yard. The treasury of the district has about $10,000 in it, and on the advice of the attorney, E. E. Keech, it was found that this money could be drawn upon for the channel work needed at this time.

The board decided to reject all bids received for the digging of the new channel. These bids were received last month and were taken under advisement.

The board had laid out the channel in seven sections, hoping that local contractors might care to take the work on one or more sections. However, none of the local men bid, and at Saturday's meeting it was decided to let the contract as a whole. Hence in the call for new bids, which are to be opened Oct. 29, the bids will be for the entire work. One change was ordered in the plans and specifications. Through a part of the channel the width will be seventy-five feet instead of 100 feet and will be four feet deep.

It was decided to advertise all unsold bids of the district for sale, bids to be opened on Oct. 29 at 2 o'clock.

The engineer was instructed to take up with the Pacific Electric the matter of the rebuilding of the P. E. Bridges across the river channel. When the bridges turned the water from the channel last winter, Attorney Keech and the railway officials had some correspondence in which an understanding for remedying the situation was entered into.

GOVERNOR STUBBS AN IN-SPIRATION

One of the coming men of this Nation is Governor Stubbs, of Kansas. In fact it can be said that he has already arrived. He is, perhaps, the most conspicuous figure in a movement on the issue of which hangs the material welfare, from the transportation standpoint, of the entire country. It has for its object the finding of ways and means to protect the producer, consumer, the shipper, and the public generally from an advance in freight rates in the most important case that has ever been heard by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

While the movement in which Governor Stubbs figures is confined to the Middle West, its fruits, if it is successful, will be distributed country-wide. The proposition being considered by the Commission is as to whether or not the railroads of the whole country are entitled to a general advance in rates, and a ruling to that effect will, per se, affect the country over alike. The action that is being taken by the business men, reinforced by political workers, must be well sustained or disaster will follow as a result of sustaining the claims of the affiliated roads.

This man Stubbs who is so promiment in resisting the aggressions of the transportation companies has become a national character, whereas but a few years ago he was not known outside a few acquaintances. His career is worthy of study by all those who have ambitions for political ferment, and a short sketch of his rise from obscurity will be edifying.

He is of Quaker stock and an ardent member of that denomination. His people were poor and lived but a few miles out from Lawrence. When he came of age he went to work on the railroad with a team. Soon he was able to buy another one and finally went into the contract business for himself. He prospered at it until he had several hundred stock at work.

In 1902 the people of Lawrence were looking around for some man whom they could send to the legislature for the purpose of doing something for the state university, which is located there. Someone discovered that Stubbs had made a success of his own business and suggested that he might be the man they were looking for. The suggestion met with favor and the upshot of it was that he was nominated and elected.

The business was absolutely new to him, and he hardly knew how to put a motion. But he went at it in the same way he had always been in the habit of doing things, and soon became a leader in the House. He served three terms and during the last two was speaker. In 1908 he was elected governor and in the primaries that were held last month was renominated, carrying every county in the state but three. It is also an open secret that unless something happens that it not looked for, he will be elected United States senator in 1912.

What is the secret of his success? This is a question of vital interest to all who aspire to public favor. It is a very simple matter and can be stated very briefly. It goes without saying that he is a man of natural ability, though he has not a collegiate education. He is a good platform talker and makes himself understood without resorting to any of the devices of the orator. But all this can be said of thousands of men who are now on the political scrapheap.

The great thing with Governor Stubbs is that he is a genuine reformer that is willing to stand up and be shot at by the biggest guns the bosses can bring to bear. He makes no compromises with them, and the idea of political expediency must always take to the rear when it comes to a matter of principle. The Santa Fe Railroad Company, which has been to Kansas about what the S. P. has been to California, has fought him at every turn, but he has seemed to enjoy it and has never once flinched.

In this way, without doing it for that purpose, he has gained the confidence of the people; and they overlook any mistakes he may make because they believe his heart to be right. In this country this is the great secret of political success. Should he make the mistake of entering into alliances with the bosses, he would at once lose the confidence of his people, which is his only political capital. The lesson from Roosevelt all down the line is that to be a successful reformer means to be one in fact, and not a mere imitation. Stubbs is an illustrious example of the genuine article.

Society

Santa Ana will be gay this week with flags and banners of purple and gold, while the marching of men who belong to an honorable order of world wide activity will take place under the waving pennants. The grand encampment of the I.O.O.F., beginning today, will bring within the borders of this fair town hundreds of sturdy chevaliers and other brothers of the significant triple links of Odd Fellowship, and with them will be many of their wives, sisters and sweethearts, belonging to the auxiliary Rebekah order. All of these will be welcomed most cordially and the freedom of the city will be theirs.

Then will come, in the middle of the week, the gayeties of Orange county's annual Carnival of Products, in which the distinguished visitors will join, adding to its brilliancy by a magnificent parade and social functions. Of the social features of both encampment and carnival much may be expected, both in public and private entertainment. The latter will be scarcely of a society nature, but more of an entertaining of guests at private homes in a hospitable way.

The carnival queen's coronation and the encampment and carnival balls will of course be the brilliant points of social life this week, and those are likely to be most interesting events. Hail to Carnival Week!

Opening of New Theater

The Bell Theater Co. opened its handsome new Theater on Main street between Third and Fourth streets, with two Saturday performances, a matinee and an evening show.

The evening performance was especially well attended, two big crowds filling the place to its capacity. Barring a short delay owing to the burning out of a fuse before the first picture was completed, the entertainment passed off smoothly and the audiences were much pleased. A moving picture show combined with vaudeville entertainment consisting of singing, instrumental stunts and character impersonations, made up an attractive program, while the orchestral music was of a high character. The excellent music will prove a big feature at this theater.

The auditorium, with spacious balcony and orchestral seats, affords ample room for big audiences. Handsome decorations, suitable to Carnival week, splendid lighting and a commodious stage, made up an attractive ensemble and put everybody in a cheerful mood. The Bell Theater opening was a success.

Rally Day

Excellent programs were presented yesterday at the Rally Day exercises of both the First Presbyterian and Congregational Churches.

The evening session proved most profitable after a praise service and the installation of officers by J. P. Welles, state president. The address of the evening was given by Thos. Hanney on the theme, "The Worker in Actual Service."

About 165 delegates were present at this, the Twenty-first annual convention and it was felt by every one to be the best convention Orange county has ever held.

Mexicans Are Accused of Attacking Countrymen With a Knife

Steve Rochas and Antonio Alivares were taken to the county jail yesterday afternoon following a drunken fracas near the water works. The indications are that no case can be made against the men, although the officers are certain that an attempt at murder occurred.

Following some difficulty, Alivares called another Mexican from a house, and Alivares and Rochas attacked him. One of the two men struck the third man with a knife, inflicting a slight wound at the collar-bone. City Marshal Edwards and Officer Hamilton were called. They found Rochas and Alivares much the worse for liquor. This morning the men in jail disavowed any knowledge of the fracas.

Rochas served 110 days in the county jail in 1907 for firing a revolver at Nate Smith at Talbert.

The Story of the Short Ballot Cities

A Series of Articles on the New Commission Form of Municipal Government

By RICHARD S. CHILDS

A peaceful revolution!

City after city sweeping away boards of aldermen, mayors and a host of minor officials and setting up new municipal governments on a brand new plan! A hundred cities have voted for the scheme: sixty-eight have obtained it. The whole nation looks on with amazed enthusiasm at towns that not only get good government, but keep it, election after election! There is probably not a single city which has not its group of men who are enthusiastically organizing some endeavor to secure the commission form of government for their town.

I.

What the "Commission Form" Is

THE spread of this movement is all the more striking because it was begun entirely by accident. Galveston, Tex., after the great flood of 1900 was practically wiped out. So much progressive and constructive work was demanded of the city government that the old system of a board of aldermen and the usual string of independent elective officers broke down. A group of business men petitioned the state government to suspend the local government and replace it temporarily with a commission of five men. This was done, and the whole city was put under the control of five men, three of whom were appointees of the governor. This was where the term "commission" originated, and the name for want of a better description has stuck to it ever since, although the board is no longer a "commission" in the true sense of the word at all.

This commission in Galveston was able to make decisions and get things accomplished in half the time that it took the old board of aldermen to get a resolution referred to a committee. The commission planned and built a sea wall to protect the city against further floods, raised the ground level of a large part of the town, got the city government running again at one-third less annual cost, made a number of important improvements and at the same time reduce the debt and the tax rate.

After two years, during which the politicians were finding precious little to do, the commission was made entirely elective by popular vote, much to the dismay of many good persons in the town, who had been much pleased with the practical success of the governor's commission. Their fears, however, proved groundless, for the people proceeded to elect the same commission and have continued to do it at every election since. Except by death there has been only one change in the personnel of the commission since the beginning.

Galveston's claim that it was the best governed city in the United States made Houston jealous, and after a few years this city petitioned for a similar government and was granted it. Dallas, El Paso, Denison, Waco and Austin have since then followed suit, leaving San Antonio, now the only important city in the state which has not adopted the plan.

A few years after Galveston first began to attract attention some civic workers in Des Moines began to study the subject of popular government in fundamental fashion. They devised what has since become known as the "Des Moines plan," which is simply the commission form of government with certain interesting additions, known as the initiative, referendum, recall and nonpartisan primary. By the terms of the initiative provision a certain number of people are permitted to present a petition to the commission demanding the passage of a certain ordinance, and if the commission sees fit to refuse the request the matter must be settled by popular vote. By the referendum provision certain matters, particularly the granting of franchises to public utility corporations, must be approved by popular vote before they become law. By the terms of the recall provision, the presentation of a petition containing a certain number of signatures may force any member of the commission to submit the question of his continuance in office to a new election immediately. The nonpartisan primary is simply an eliminating election. All candidates are nominated by petition (no party labels), and the leading ten remain on the ballot for the final election.

The elimination of the party name, symbol and column from the ballot, is a highly significant and characteristic feature of the commission form of government. It excludes the political machines from a great strategic advantage and leaves independent candidates on an exact equality with those proposed by the organizations. The ballot is simply a list of names with a square opposite each, and the voter is instructed to "vote for five." Instead of having a ticket ready made for him, each voter makes up his own ticket. The fact that only five men are to be selected makes this task simple, and there has been found to be no difficulty about it in practice. This Short Ballot, which the voter can vote without the guidance of political experts, is the central and vital feature of the commission plan.

The publicity attendant on the installation of the new government in Des Moines gave the movement new stimulus throughout the country, and it began to be known as the latest and most up to date thing in city government. Many towns adopted it from

THE FABLE OF THE LONG BALLOT

Once upon a time a Plain Citizen went to the polls to vote. The ballot contained the names of a hundred candidates for a score of offices. "That ballot is not for me," said the Plain Citizen. "That ballot is for experts only. I'm as good as disenchanted by it!"

"You ought to go into politics and become an expert yourself," said the Politician.

"I can't. Economic pressure keeps me hard at work to support my family. That's my first duty."

"Lucky for me!" murmured the Politician.

"Why is politics so complex? Why are there so many picayune elective offices," persisted the citizen.

"So that you will always need me," the Politician replied, as the Citizen, without even reading the names of the candidates, helplessly voted a straight ticket.

MORAL—The longer the ballot, the less the Plain Citizen counts in politics. The "Short Ballot" used in Des Moines, Galveston, and abroad, is the right remedy. A "Short Ballot" carries only a few conspicuous offices and the citizens hold easy and effective direct control over their government.

TESTS FROM WHICH TO GET RANGERS

Forest Service Name Oct. 24 and 25 as Time for Giving Examinations

The Civil Service Commission will hold an examination for Assistant Forest Ranger on October 24-25, 1910. The U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that 400 eligibles will be needed during the field season of 1911. Assistant Forest Rangers are paid an entrance salary of $1100 per annum.

The examination will be held at National Forest headquarters, California.

Forest Rangers must be, when practicable, citizens of the state or territory in which the National Forest on which they are to be appointed is situated.

In the states in which no examinations are to be held there is still a sufficient list of eligibles to make the holding of another examination unnecessary.

The requirements and duties of Forest Rangers are thus described in "The Use Book," which contains the regulations and instructions for the use of the National Forests:

"A ranger of any grade must be thoroughly sound and able-bodied, capable of enduring hardships and performing severe labor under trying conditions. He must be able to take care of himself and his horses in regions remote from settlement and supplies. He must be able to build trails and cabins, ride, pack, and deal tactfully with all classes of people. He must know something of land surveying, estimating and sealing timber, logging, land laws, mining, and the livestock business.

"The examination of applicants is along the practical lines indicated above, and actual demonstration, by performance, is required. Invalids seeking light out-of-door employment need not apply. Experience, not book education, is sought, although ability to make simple maps and write intelligent reports upon ordinary Forest business is essential.

"Where saddle horses or pack horses are necessary in the performance of their duty, rangers are required to own and maintain them. The Forest Service furnishes no personal or horse equipment.

"Rangers execute the work of the National Forest under the direction of supervisors. Their duties include patrol to prevent fires and trespass, estimating, surveying, and marking timber, the supervision of cuttings, and similar work. They issue minor permits, build cabins and trails, oversee grazing business, investigate claims, report on applications, and report upon and arrest for violation of Forest laws and regulations."

Details regarding the examination, including the names of the places at which it will be held, will be sent to anyone applying to the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

The Collapse of the Taft Administration—

A vigorous and informative article by Judson C. Welliver, whose "Is Roosevelt Inevitable" in "HAMPTON'S" for August, created more discussion than any article of the day. Mr. Welliver has the knack of telling precisely the things we want to know; the interesting "behind the scenes" which is unknown to the general public. This article fully explains why President Taft has failed and why there is so much talk about a third party. Everyone who is interested in the political history that is being made every day must read Mr. Welliver's exposition of the situation.

TAFT IS KIND TO INSURGENTS

Speaks of All Republicans as Progressives and Looks for Republican Success

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—President Taft delivered what will probably be his only public address of the present campaign at the banquet of the National Republican League at the Hotel Astor Saturday.

The President's speech was marked by an unusually conciliatory tone toward the insurgent wing of the party. He gave "all facts of the party" due credit for their share in helping to put through congress the legislative program which the President took occasion to outline in some detail.

The record of the last eighteen months, he declared, was an earnest desire of the party to fulfill its platform promises and obligations, and he promised that if the Republican majority in congress should be continued at the coming election the work thus far left undone would be carried through to completion.

Upon the whole Republican party the President bestowed the title of "progressive." Then he undertook to define just what is meant by "progressive."

"A party of true progress is not a party of radicalism," he declared, amid cheers.

"A progressive Republican," the President went on, "is one who recognizes existing and concrete evils, and who is in favor of practical and definite steps to eradicate them."

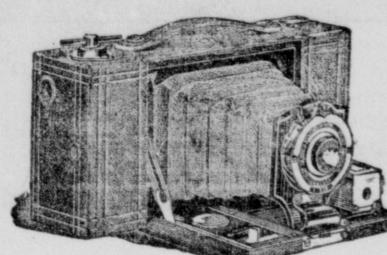

Among other things, President Taft said was the following on the claims of the Democracy:

"Our Democratic friends are saying that if the Democratic party came into power it would reduce the expenses of the government $300,000,000. Do they mean that the Democrats would abolish the pension list? Do they mean that they would abandon Porto Rico and the Sandwich Islands and the Philippines? Let us have a little specification. What are such statements worth unless the gentlemen who make them give us the details of the expenditures that they criticize and expect to avoid if they are let into power and become themselves the national government?"

It is possible to save money in carrying on this government, and we are now struggling in this administration to find out how modern principles of business organization and efficiency may be applied to a governmental structure that has been handed down for a hundred years and never has been reorganized with the idea of securing modern business economy. But it is hard work, and when one speaks glibly of $300,000,000 being saved each year in the ordinary conduct of the government, and when that saving is to be made by a party so lacking in everything that goes to make up business cohesiveness and singleness of aim and view as the Democratic party, we regret the statement as Pickwickian.

AUSTRALIA.—The President went on, "is one who recognizes existing and concrete evils, and who is in favor of practical and definite steps to eradicate them."

HEARTLESS WOMAN BELITTLES HERO

Scorned Death of Rescuer and Sailors Almost Threw Her Overboard

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—After Eugene Aubit, a sailor aboard the battleship Kansas, had saved her from drowning, losing his own life in the attempt, the rescued woman belittled the sailor's heroism because she lost a $350 diamond in the water. The seamen were so angered over the woman's ingratitude that they almost threw her back into the water.

When the woman fell into the water from the pier, Aubit jumped in with Ensign Blackburn, both keeping her afloat until she reached a float, when Aubit became so weak that he sank. When the woman cried, "Can't you see I've lost my diamond?" patrolman Gallagher replied:

"Can't you see a man is drowned?" "What do I care about a common sailor," the woman replied. A score of sailors rushed toward the woman crying:

"Throw her overboard." Gallagher and Ensign Blackburn barely saved the woman.

Daring Bird Men Will Seek to Fly From Windy City to New York

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—The culmination of a year's remarkable progress in aviation began in Chicago Saturday when entrants in the $30,000 New York-Chicago air race gave exhibitions at Hawthorne track. The race to New York will start Saturday next. Nine aviators are entered.

The 1000-mile flight to New York, which must be accomplished in 186 hours' elapsed time, stops unlimited, will be the greatest endurance test of modern flyers. The entrants, with the make and capacity of their machines, are:

Four sticks of dynamite and a box of caps were found late last night in an empty house near the plant of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation on Aliso street. The gas plant is near the brewery of the Maier Brewing Company.

The dynamite is in the hands of the police, having been turned over to them by a man who did not give his name. He explained his reticence by saying that a negro had just rented the house and, on finding the explosive inside, had asked him to take it to the police. The negro sent his name and address on a slip of paper. The name was given as E. D. Marrow.

Unwrapped from some oily paper in the detectives' office the four sticks of dynamite were found to be tied tightly together with a blue string. Each stick was stamped "Giant Powder, Aug. 20, 1908."

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The local port officers have been unable to find any trace of the dynamite bought of the Giant Co., or find a trace of the launch "Peerless" in which it was carried from the Giant plant. It is believed here the name was pasted on the little vessel and taken off later. Sacramento river points know nothing of the "Peerless." It is not registered with the collector of the port here.

GOV. GILLET WILL NOT OFFER ANY STATE REWARD

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 3.—Gov. Gillett declared today that he will not offer a reward for the apprehension of the persons connected with the Los Angeles Times dynamiting.

"My reason is," he said, "that the funds at my disposal are limited. What I could offer would be a trifling compared with that already offered. I feel that I should reserve what I have for the use of communities too poor to offer their own rewards."

not in a position to announce results yet.

It became known this morning that the city council will increase the $10,000 reward offered by Mayor Alexander to $25,000, with which the $7500 offered by the State Federation of Labor and $1000 by the "Examiner," makes a total of $33,500 offered for the arrest and conviction of the perpetrators of the dynamiting outrage. The county is likely to offer a reward and the business men of the city are expected to offer anywhere from $50,000 to $100,000. The business associations of the city are backing the police with a big fund it is understood, and W. J. Burns, the San Francisco detective, has also been enlisted in the search for the criminals. It now seems an evident fact that the wrecking of the Times was the work of human agency.

The purchase of explosives of the nature of those found near the Zeehandelaar house, has been traced to Grant, Calif., where "two men giving the names of A. J. Bryson and William Morris, accompanied by a third man whose name was not given, bought gelatine and dynamite of terrible explosive power. Owing to the unusual nature of the explosives, the officials questioned the buyers who gave their names and alleged residence and the alleged purpose for which the explosives were to be used, that of blasting rocks and stumps at Auburn, Calif. It is quite certain it is said that the dynamite was shipped to Los Angeles via San Pedro.

NO SUCH MAN AS A. J. BRYSON KNOWN AT AUBURN

AUBURN, Cal., Oct. 3.—That the men who purchased five hundred pounds of eighty per cent giant gelatine, part of which the Los Angeles police believe was used to dynamite the Los Angeles Times building, are attempting to conceal their identity is the belief of the local authorities. There is no one here known as A. J. Bryson, which name the man buying the powder gave. The launch Pearl, in which the explosive was taken to San Francisco, is also unknown.
